

If I Were A Carpenter

INTRO: A//// A//// A////

G
D
A
(Men) If I were a carpenter, and you were a lady,
G
A
 would you marry me anyway, would you have my baby?

G
A
(Women) If you were a carpenter, and I were a lady,
G
A
 I'd marry you anyway, I would have your baby.

G
A
(Men) If a tinker was my trade, would I still find you?

G
A
(Women) I'd be carrying the pots you made, following be-hind you.

G
A
(Both) Save your love through loneliness,
A save your love through sorrow.

G
(Men) I gave you my oneliness,
A
(Both) give me your to-morrow

INTERLUDE:

G//// D//// A//// G//// D//// A//// ////

G D A
(Men) If I were a miller, and a mill wheel grinding

G D A
Would you miss your coloured blouse, and your soft shoe shining?

G D A
(Women) If you were a miller, and a mill wheel grinding

G D A
I'd not miss my coloured blouse, and my soft shoe shining.

G A
(Both) Save your love through loneliness,

D A
save your love through sorrow.

G D A
(Men) I gave you my oneliness, give me your to-morrow

G D A
(Men) If I worked my hands in wood, would you still love me?

G
(Women) I'd answer you 'yes I would'.

D A
(Men) And would you not be above me

G D A
(Men) If I were a carpenter, and you were a lady,

G D A
(Women) I'd marry you anyway, I would have your baby.

G A
(Both) Save your love through loneliness,

D A
save your love through sorrow.

G
(Men) I gave you my oneliness,

SLOWLY:

D A//// D//// A/
(Both) give me your to-morrow
